

JARVIS--REYNOLDS.

Wednesday evening a number of friends gathered at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Jarvis to witness the uniting in marriage of their daughter Miss M. Edith to Mr. Elmer Reynolds.

Shortly after eight o'clock Rev. Mr. Hewson took his place in the center of the parlor and the bridesmaid, Miss Clara Prescott, led the bridal party into the room and the words were soon spoken which united their two lives.

Mr. Elmer Jarvis, brother of the bride, accompanied Mr. Reynolds who is from Iowa, and a young man of sterling integrity.

The bride wore an elegant costume of heavy cream white satin trimmed with chiffon applique and shirring. She carried a bouquet of long stemmed cream-white roses. The bride is a young woman of charming personality and not only wins friends but retains the friendship.

After the ceremony the party was invited to partake of an elegant and bountiful luncheon.

The presents were numerous and beautiful.

Conversation and music constituted the entertainments and at a late hour the friends departed and with the wish that their lives will be bonny and glad, that the honeymoon will last til long time after Time's finger has touched their locks with silver.

The guests were, Messrs and Mesdames A. Fried, D. B. Berlin, F. W. Wessel, A. M. Hewson, A. C. Christy; Mrs. C. M. Cribbs, Miss Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Ready of Jamestown, Miss Prescott of Wahpeton, Mr. James of Mt. Ayr, Iowa. and Mrs. Bessie Jarvis and son of Pingree.
