

Rev. John Arnold evidently believes that a minister's sphere of usefulness is not limited to preaching on Sunday and visiting his flock through the week. He has organized a class in German and the boys and girls can receive instruction in that language every Saturday—without charge.