

Dazey Items

Blizzards in New York and Pennsylvania. Florida weather in North Dakota. "Who says North Dakota isn't all right".

Hans Peterson, the little boy from Courtenay, was a Dazey visitor Wednesday.

Station Agent Duff made a trip up the line this week.

Mr. Parker is back from Fargo. He looks hale and hearty.

Ole Michaelson, our genial blacksmith, has again resumed his place at the anvil and forge which he vacated, for a short time, to take unto himself a wife. Congratulations.

Mr. Jacobson, Dazey's banker is with us once more after a short sojourn with friends in the Twin Cities. He reports everything lively down there.

The Great Western Elevator Company shipped in a car load of corn this week.

Mr. Rasmussens new elevator is fast nearing completion.

Rumor says we will have another livery barn here before long.

Landlord Le Rue is fitting up an addition to his hotel.

O. H. West has the stone on the ground for the foundation of a mammoth machinery hall which they will erect in the spring.

Jim Harrison is on the sick list.

Rustler