

Dazey Items

"Mother Earth has again taken on a mantel of white.

Jonas Ose gave a dance at his place east of Dazey—Thursday night. About twelve couples were present and enjoyed themselves tripping the light fantastic until the wee hours of the morning. Wilson & Dahl furnished the music.

C. O. Knutson left for an extended visit with friends and relatives in Minnesota on last Wednesday.

Mr. Parker was a passenger from the north, Wednesday.

Syver Ose returned from a visit with friends west of Hannaford, Wednesday.

Jonas Ose and Hans Mallom left for Portal, Friday, to look over the country.

Mr. Daily made a flying visit south, Wednesday.

The old livery barn at this place has changed hands. Mr. Parker is the lucky man.

Haynes photograph car has been doing a rashing business along the branch the past week. Many can now see themselves as others see them.

The concert given last week was a success and well worthy of patronage.

Ole Mikkelson is the busiest man in town. Between setting up housekeeping and an avalanch of work at the shop he has his hands full. But he wipes the sweat from his brow and smiles good naturedly through it all.

Andrew Mathson is building a house on his place northwest of town.

Lou Moss returned from a trip north, Saturday. He says they have about six inches of snow up there.

Frank Drice, of Iowa, is here visiting his brother,

A prairie fire east of Bald Hill creek burned over quite a scope of country the other day, destroying the grass and damaging the roots for next season's growth. Only for getting hemmed in by the creek on one side and the highway on the other, there is no telling where it would have stopped. When will people learn to be more careful about setting out fires?

—Rustler.