Nice, Nicer, Nicest!

Is what the weather has been for the last week. But today we are getting eastern weather, viz. colder.

O. H. West has gone to the twin cities to purchase next season's supply of agricultural implements, etc.

Mr. Markuson, of Hannaford, was down visiting his brother last week. He was looking well and hearty.

Hans Mallom and Jonas Ose are back from Portal where they went to look over the country. They are loud in their praises of the country up there.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee's child, which occurred at the home of the parents Monday evening. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved parents in their great sorrow.
