

Dover

A valuable horse, owned by Henry Wilson, died last Sunday.

Grandma Brueske is recovering from a severe illness.

The younger daughter of N. Flagler has been ill at their home in Pierce township.

Silas Miller, a member of the Dover school board, is having the Berlin school house repainted, and a number of other improvements are being made.

It is reported that a bachelor of Pennsylvania avenue is about to renounce single blessedness. At any rate something of vast importance is taking that gentleman to the county seat right in the midst of seeding, the busy season when farmers can ill afford to be absent.
