

Geo. Franklin, the man who was injured by Darkenwald's engine last week, and is now at Dr. Pray's hospital in Valley City, had his hand amputated one day this week and is slowly recovering. He carried an accident policy but it expired just four days prior to the day he was hurt.