

LEAL LOCALS.

[Too late for last week.]

F. P. Young was at Valley City Thursday evening.

John Kernohan visited the local barber on Tuesday.

E. L. Penn was in Wimbledon Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Walks has moved into her town property here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Green are in town for the "balance of the winter."

Messrs. Carl and Eric Lawson made a pleasant call in town on Wednesday.

Chris Christianson is home from California where he spent the winter.

Geo. Hazelett who has been living on his claim at Minot returned on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Lannon and daughter Miss Maud spent Wednesday and Thursday in Valley City.

The program given on the 15th by the Delta Society was well rendered to an appreciative audience.

Miss Jennie Henderson of southern Minnesota has been engaged to teach the Uxbridge school. Her term will commence on the 25th inst.

Ward Pickett closed his school term at Ashtabula on Friday and came home that evening. He went to Valley City on Monday to enter the Normal.

The Town Board went to Fargo Sunday evening where they contracted for a New Era road ditcher and grader. The machine will be tested immediately after seeding.

E. R. Howe made a flying trip to Wimbledon Thursday.

Misses Jennie Peterson and Hilga Nelson visited in Wimbledon Thursday.

Mrs. A. D. Root and Mrs. Wm. Root went to Valley City on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hilborn spent Tuesday in Valley City on matters of business.

F. P. Young and family were out in the auto on Thursday evening enjoying the balmy spring air.

On Tuesday, P. M. Abrahamson's sister, Miss Otilia and Miss Ellen Nelson both of Sweden, arrived here.

Mr. A. James received word by telegram on Sunday that his sister Mrs. Ruth Hamilton, of Carbury, Manitoba, was dead. He left for Carbury on the evening train.
