

LEAL LOCALS.

Too late for last week.

L. Martinson was a visitor to Dazey on Tuesday evening.

Several of our citizens transacted business in Valley City during the week.

Revival services began at the M. E. church here on Wednesday evening.

Arthur Smith is getting in a line of harness in preparation for his summer's trade.

Everet Lundy has in a full line of machinery and vehicles and is prepared for the spring and summer trade.

It is a good sign to see two new business enterprises started in the village. There is yet room for more of them. Business brings prosperity.

George Butler, Earl Pickett and Burl Carr are at home for the spring vacation. Earl will assist his father in his butcher business this summer.

Mrs. Howard Wilson and Miss Jennie Peterson spent Friday shopping in Valley City

Co. Supt. Barnes visited the schools here on Tuesday. His talks to the pupils were full of information for better work. He is preparing pictures of the schools of the county and while here took views both outside and in.

Messrs. J. Nelson and Joe Dewhurst were in Valley City the fore part of the week.

The Delta society of the grammar school will give a program consisting of "The Little Women Play," music, etc., on April 8th.

The W. C. T. U. met at Mrs. Howard Wilson's on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. W. R. Howe and little son and daughter left Monday morning for a visit with her parents at Brookings, S. D.

Perry Pickett visited his parents here on Sunday and Monday.

Miss Ida Tolstad who was at home during her spring vacation returned to her college work Monday.