

LEAL LOCALS.

The church social held at Society Hall, Saturday evening for the benefit of Rev. Mr. Moore, presiding elder of this district, was largely attended and also liberally patronized.

Charles Bertley who formerly resided here, is in town, a guest of John Nelson.

Miss Irene Reynolds is recovering from a sprained arm.

Buzz Young, infant son of Postmaster Young, was quite ill last Sunday.

August Nelson, Wm. Kline and Mr. Pearsall were considerably hailed out by Friday's storm and have sent in reports. This is the first, and we hope the last, this year.

Dennis Connolly from N. Y. State is in town and will probably locate here and purchase Dakota land.

The W. C. T. U. meeting at Petersons last Thursday was well attended.

Geo. Kilmer, of Courtenay, was in town this week taking scenic productions.

It is said that a prominent citizen was caught pilfering eggs from a barn but he is so well known that the story is not believed. It was near a picket on a fence.

Harry Green's father has been visiting him.

Nels Carr is said to have a bunch of fine barley that is estimated to produce at least 70 bushels to the acre.

Martinson Bros. helper, Fred, has gone to Courtenay. He helped the boys out of the rush.

The dance at Wm. Thompson's was postponed for a week, but is coming off.

The "Weary Willies" who are perfectly willing that the other fellow shall do the work are encamping in bunches here. Good honest men are also coming.