

LEAL LOCALS.

Contractor Martin Nelson has been on the sick report, but is better.

A. E. Lundy has disposed of his driving horse and has a fine team instead.

Everybody must know by this time that the Soo has recently changed time.

Miss Amy Peterson who has been attending school at Minneapolis, is home again for summer vacation.

Some of the town people went to the circus at Jamestown last Friday; mostly all attended the carnival at the Valley.

If Leal was a fair representation at the carnival, there were certainly many thousands there. Everybody, almost, attended from here and round about.

Mike Asabella, the noted dry goods peddler, has a cousin here visiting, who comes from Portland, Maine. These two people claim their nativity in the far off Persia, or near the Mediterranean S. a.

Postmaster Frank Young and family have returned on their automobile, after several pleasant days sojournment at the Kindred in Valley City, and they took in the carnival, of course

On Saturday evening of this week a social will be given at the hall to raise a purse for Rev. Mr. Moore, presiding elder of this district, by the church people.