

Local Localities

Our "Village Blacksmith" attended the dance at Rogers on Friday evening.

Miss Emma Michaelson of Dazey is helping at the Nels Nelson farm now.

Mrs. N. Carr and Miss Elsie Keime made a visit to Wimbledon Saturday afternoon.

Miss Helen Bascom spent the first part of the week at the home of A. Y. More in Wimbledon.

Miss Edna Tunnell is again in town. She has been spending the summer at her home in Foxholm.

Soren Nelson who has been taking treatment at the Platon hospital at Valley City is reported doing nicely.

Misses Tena Chenstrum and Jennie Peterson drove to Dazey last Friday where Miss Tena had some dentistry work done.

Mrs. Thos. Fiewell gave a quilting bee at her home on Wednesday the 4th. A pleasant time and much quilting are reported.

Martin Nelson has taken the contract of digging post holes around Harry Green's town property and has begun work.

Carl Larson one of our butchers got his first goose a few days ago. The game he usually brings down is larger; but then there always must be a "first time."

Wm. Kremer, one of the carpenters, who was at work on the Chris Nelson buildings is down with the typhoid fever at the 5th Ave. hotel, Valley City.

Miss Elsie Keime entertained a company of young people at whist at the home of Mrs. N. Carr on Thursday evening. Lunch was served and all spent a very enjoyable evening.

Doe Young of this place came home from Minneapolis Tuesday morning. He went down on Friday evening to see the Michigan-Minnesota football game, as well as to attend to some matters of business.

While selling meat at Rogers Wednesday forenoon, Pickett & Lawson's team became frightened at the passing N. P. train and ran away. The wagon was demolished, meat was scattered along the road and the team slightly injured. No one was hurt.

The usual "small boy" act was performed here on Halloween and everything loose was given a turn. Pleasure often verges into pain; have your fun, boys, but be on the lookout for the Nemesis that always overtakes even an unintentional wrong doer.

Ole Skoog formerly of our community, now of Hobart, paid his friends here a flying visit Monday. A number of the young people were driven by him out to the Nels Nelson farm and back. Come again Ole, we shall be ready for another ride.

The L. T. L. is again holding its sessions in the school house at four o'clock on Thursday afternoons. The meetings are in charge of Mrs. F. Smith and Mrs. J. W. Widdifield. The instruction given the members is certainly of a high character.
