

Leal Locals.

Turner Moore, of Wimbledon, was in town Tuesday.

The orchestra meets regularly on Friday evenings.

Chris Nelson is building a house and barn. Walter Nelson also is erecting a house.

Misses Christina Nelson and Jennie Peterson returned from Valley City on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Young, who has been doctoring her little son in Valley City for a week past returned home Monday.

Leal is well represented in the Valley City Normal and is of course pleased to know of the Normal foot ball teams success.

Our boys are having much sport with their guns and the tables in town and vicinity are often savory with goose.

The school opened here a week ago Monday. The bright faces and newly painted walls lend an element of interest that bids fair for a profitable term's work.

Henry Pickett and Martin Nelson saw the football game at Valley City Saturday. Martin says: "If I wanted to die I'd join the football team."

Wm. Root, who accidentally shot himself last Friday while plowing, died at 4:45 on Friday afternoon. The local M. W. A., of which he was a member, had spared no care or expense to secure his recovery, no less than four doctors having been called to his aid the last being Dr. Darrow of Fargo, who came Monday morning. But all efforts in his behalf were of no avail and death at last relieved him of his sufferings. The funeral service were in charge of the lodge and were held at the M. E. church Thursday afternoon. Rev. Green of Valley City, officiating. The body was interred in the cemetery at this place. He leaves a wife of a year who, though she mourns for her loss, is comforted by the fact that he had not failed to provide for her benefit and support ample life insurance of $2,000 in case he should meet with an untimely death.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson were welcome visitors to our office recently and witnessed the power press in operation, and the News now visit their home each week. We are always pleased to have our readers call and while here our time is theirs.

Many will take advantage of the low rates on the Soo line and leave tonight for the Twin Cities to witness the football game tomorrow at Minneapolis between Minnesota and Michigan. $7.00 for the round trip, tickets good returning Monday the 2nd.

Geo. Kilmer was over from Dazey yesterday and handed us several views of the business houses and residences of that thriving town. George did a nice business in the photograph line at that place and his work gave good satisfaction. He will return with his car to this place next week.
