

REAL LOCALS.

McGinley was in town
this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Flewell are spending a few days at Fargo this week.

Lindsay, the thresher, purchased some new threshing machinery recently.

Mr. Davis, formerly of the Green farm is now the main ton-orial artist at Nelson's barber parlors.

The International Harvester Company's collector was in town this week adjusting final accounts for the season.

Miss Peterson, employed at Harry Green's has been very ill with pneumonia, but is improving.
Mrs. Rouke, nurse, has been attending.

Mack Hamilton's fine crop of onions were frozen the night we had the hard frost and Mack took a car load to Butte, Mont., but they collapsed in the car and spoiled and Mack returns a poorer but a wiser man. It is a bad loss to him and he says the season is not long enough here to successfully raise the crop, to a certainly in any large amount.
