

There is little change if any for the better in August Netting's condition and it is advised by his physician Dr. Wanner to have him removed to Fargo where he will have his leg amputated. He will be taken there Saturday if the weather and his condition will permit.