

Leg Broken.

Bob Wallace met with an accident Monday morning, how serious is not fully known. He was closing the gate on his way from the lake to the city at an early hour. The team ran away, owing to one horse getting his head under the neck yoke. Bob was thrown out and his left ankle either broken or dislocated. It was the same leg similarly hurt once before. The team ran for some distance, breaking the spring wagon, and Bob's cries finally attracted the attention of the occupants of the Seiler cottage. They came to the rescue and carried him to the house on a stretcher. Mr. Seiler went to Wimbleton, the nearest point, for Dr. Wanner.

A later 'phone from Wimbleton stated that Mr. Wallace's leg had been broken just above the ankle, that the fracture had been set and everything necessary done.—
