

School Notes.

Week ending March 31.

Friday afternoon a farewell program was rendered by Miss McGovern's pupils. Many of the parents attended the exercises and expressed their satisfaction of the able work done by their children. The pupils of the high school room were also visitors. At the close of the exercises her pupils presented Miss McGovern with a purse as an expression of their kindly regard.

The following have been school visitors during the past week: Mabel Henderson, Mrs. J. A. Peterson, Lizzie Schoepp, John Joos, Sr., and J. M. Joos.

Miss Schoepp has taken up her duties as teacher of the intermediate department filling the vacancy made by the resignation of Miss McGovern.

The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy during the past week: Ralph Berlin, Hale Berlin, Irene Cox, Maxie Feckler, Minnie, Pauline and Bertha Finner, Francis Hoelzle, Frank Hatch, Emma and Fred Joos, Gertrude Kribbs, Mildred Mark, Hazel Parks, Elsie Schrieter, Martin Darkenwald, Wardle Sandy, Winnie Hoelzle, Clyde Heffron, Imogene Berlin, Harold Berlin, Emma Edwards, Emma Kribbs, Rosa Renter, Clara Nelson, John Dick, Mae McBride, Stella Hatch, Harry Fitzgerald, Arnold Renter, Margaret and Janet Sandy, Oscar Olson, Elwood Kribbs, Beth McBride, Clara Schreiter, Cora Gaston, Emma Hatch, Lucile Dick, Charlie Winters, Fred Wilke, Irene Joos, Margret Schreiter, Jessie and John More, Oswald Dick, Erma Parks, Ernest Finner, Helen Peterson, Oscar, Ingval, Lily and Ida Edland, Edward Hoefel.

Clifford Collier is a new pupil in the primary department.