

School Notes.

Wednesday of last week was kept as a holiday, it being anniversary of Washington's birthday.

A short Washington-Lincoln program was given in the primary and high school rooms. The intermediate department were invited into the upper room where they helped with the singing. After the regular exercises, the two rooms engaged in a spelling contest which was not finished for want of time.

The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy during the past week: Carl Christ, Elwood Kribbs, Anna Christ, Beth McBride, Clara Schreiter, Corn Gaston, Emma and August Hatch, Lucile Dick, Fred Wilke, Irene Joos, Margaret Schreiter, George Brooks, Oscar Reuter, Jessie More, John More, Oswald Dick, Erma Parks, Glen Peterson, Oscar Ingval, Lily, and Ida Edland, Will Sloan, Edward Hoefel, Ralph Berlin, Irene Cox, Henry, Win. and Louie Ernie, Maxie Feckler, Alma and Ernest Flohr, Minnie Pauline and Bertha Kinner, Elmer Ferguson, Francis Hoelzle, Frank Hatch, Emma and Fred Joos, Gertude Kribbs, Mildred Mark, Hazel Parks, Verona Reuter, Walter and Elsie Schreiter, Sadie Schilling, Elliot Stevenson, John Sloan, Wardle Sandy, Winnie Hoelzle, Clyde Heffron, Georgie Feckler, Imogene Berlin, Bella Pierce, Rosa Reuter, Grace McBride, Harold Berlin, Emma Edwards, Walter Flewell, Clara Nelson, Reinhold Flohr, Louise Flohr, Emma Kribbs, Stella Hatch, Olive Ferguson, Susie Ferguson, Earl Ferguson, Harry and Fred Fitzgerald, Arnold Reuter, David and Janet Sandy, and Carrie Heffron.

Mrs. J. H. Gibson and Chas. Inches were callers Friday. The two Misses Hoffman also spent the day with us.