

School Notes.

(For week ending Nov. 17.)

Foot ball is now the order of the day, and if the weather man continues to be good to us, we expect to play Courtenay on Saturday.

Our trees have been given individual fences to keep them from running over the children when they, the trees, are play-pull-away.

We are watching with a great deal of gratification the steady improvement made in strength by our class and school-mate, Bella Pierce.

As the school yard has proven too small to accommodate all the pupils at play time, the lot back of the school house has been brought into active service.

The value of the Wimbledon school is so appreciated by our friends in the neighboring districts that we now have twenty five enrolled from outside our district.

We have now the largest enrollment in the history of the school, it being 132, a considerable more than last winter, with several pupils yet to come in. More seats have been put in both the upstairs rooms and it seems that the rooms themselves will prove too small.

Following is a list of the pupils who have been neither absent nor tardy during the week ending Nov. 17: Elwood Kribbs, Helen Peterson, Oscar Olson, Theo. Couey, Lewis Heffron, Beth and Geo. McBride, Oscar and Ingval Edland, Lucille Dick, August and Emma Hatch, Cora Gaston, Clara Schreiter, Irene Joos, Oswald Dick, Hilda Finner, Jessie More, Glen Peterson, Erma Parks, George Hoenstein, Lily Edland, Carrie Couey, Gordon More, Ida Edland, May Feckler, Ernest Finner, Leon Stilter, Irene Cox, Minnie Finner, Alma Flohr, Francis Hoelzle, Nellie Joos, Gertrude Kribbs, Mildred Mark, Alberta Taylor, Pauline and Bertha Finner, Ernest Flohr, Florence Fried, Emma Joos, Sadie Schilling, Elsie Schreiter, Louisa, Adolph, Fred and Laura Etter, Frank Hatch, Herman Knecht, Fred Joos, Ralph Berlin, Donalda Flewell, Emma Kribbs, Cloe Couey, Geraldine Berlin, John Dick, Annetta Fried, Harold and Imogene Berlin, Clyde Heffron, Clara Nelson, Hazel Parks, Chas. Couey, Walter Flewell, Jacob Knecht, Stella Hatch and Fred Fitzgerald.