

School Notes.

(For week ending Oct. 6.)

Bella Pierce who is suffering with an attack of typhoid fever, has the best wishes of her school mates for a speedy recovery.

Elwood Kribbs who has been laid up nursing a broken arm, has returned to school.

The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy during the past week: Hale Berlin, Irene Cox, Alma Flohr, Francis Hoelzle, Nellie Joos, Gertrude Kribbs, Mildred Mark, Alberta Taylor, Mamie Altringer, Bertha Finner, Ernest Flohr, Florence Fried, Emma Joos, Sadie Schilling, Elsie Schreiter, Emma Kribbs, Cloe Couey, Geraldine Berlin, John Dick, Louise Flohr, Wardle Sandy, Harold Berlin, Imogene Berlin, Clyde Heffron, Winnie Hoelzle, Hazel Parks, Oswald Dick, Hilda Finner, Glen Peterson, Erma Parks, George Hoenstein, Lily Edland, Carrie Couey, Henrietta Wilke, Ida Edland, Tillie Altringer, Viola and Senora Joos, Orval Maskell, May Feckler, Grace Winters, Ernest Finner, James Walks, Myrtle Turter, Augusta Turter, John More, Howard Mark, Helen Peterson, Cecelia Altringer, Beth McBride, George McBride, Fred Wilke, Oscar Edland, Ingval Edland, August Hatch, Emma Hatch, Cora Gaston, Clara Schreiter, Margaret Schreiter, Irene Cox, Perry Glendenning.