

School Notes.

Week ending March 3.

The Wimbledon High School Club gave the first of a series of programs Friday afternoon. The school is divided between this Club and the Philomathean Literary Society, each division giving a half hour entertainment every other Friday afternoon. The first was a marked success and have every reason to believe those following will be.

The following students have been neither absent nor tardy during the past week: Wardle Sandy, Winnie Hoelzle, Clyde Heffron, Georgie Feckler, Imogene Berlin, Bella Pierce, Grace McBride, Harold Berlin, Emma Edwards, Clara Nelson, Emma Kribbs, Reinhold and Louise Flohr, John Dick, Mae McBride, Stella Hatch, Olive Ferguson, Susie Ferguson, Earl Ferguson, Harry Fitzgerald, Carrie Heffron, Peter Altringer, Ralph and Hale Berlin, Irene Cox, Maxie Feckler, Alma and Ernest Flohr, Pauline, Bertha Finner, Elmer Ferguson, Francis Hoelzle, Frank Hatch, Emma, Nellie, Fred, Maggie and Louise Joos, Gertrude Kribbs, Mildred Mark, Hazel Parks, Verona Reuter, Walter Schreiter Sadie Shilling, John Sloan, Herman Wood and the entire primary department.
