

School Notes.

Week ending March 24.

Orval Maskell and Martin Darkenwald were new students during the week.

Several students have found it necessary to leave school to attend to spring's work. We are sorry to have the work of these pupils broken into.

The regular program of the Philomathean Literary Society was rendered Friday afternoon. The students show a marked improvement in their literary work. It was settled in debate that women should have equal suffrage with men. The following visitors were present at the program: Mrs. Kribbs, and Mrs. G. Hatch while Seymour Platt of Oelwein, Iowa was also a visitor during the week.
