

JOHN MERRY DEAD.

Body Found in Room at the Grand
Hotel in Medina Thursday Evening.

A telephone message from Medina Thursday evening told of finding the dead body of John Merry in a room at the Grand hotel in that town about about 7:30 that evening. The news of his sudden death was a shock to the whole community as he was well and favorably known here. His brother Edward left for Medina last night and up to the hour of going to press the details of the sad affair are not obtainable. Funeral services will be held and the remains interred at Jamestown Saturday afternoon. The deceased was a solicitor for a popular life insurance company and well known over the state. He leaves a wife and little daughter, two brothers, a sister and mother to mourn. The deepest sympathy of the people here is extended to the bereaved ones.
