

DEATH OF HARRY CORNWALL

PASSING OF ONE OF JAMESTOWN'S BEST KNOWN RESIDENTS FROM COMPLICATION OF AILMENTS.

The sad news was made known shortly after 2:25 p. m. today of the death, at his residence in this city of Harry C. Cornwall, who has been rapidly failing in strength since Monday last. He appeared on the street Saturday and was also up Sunday, after which he was compelled to take to his bed, from which it was destined that he never should not rise alive. He returned from Rochester, Minn., early in June, having gone there for a diagnosis of his ailment and for helpful treatment. It is understood that he was given little encouragement for recovery. He returned home, after visiting several old friends and business associates, and has been rapidly declining since his arrival home.

His death was caused by a cancer of the stomach and jaundice. He has been ailing for over nine months, but probably did not fully recognize the serious nature of his disease. The funeral will be held at the Methodist church, Monday at 2 p. m., Rev. Dr. Danford officiating, and interment will be at the Jamestown cemetery. Deceased was 53 years of age. —Alert.
