

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Farrar of Kensal mourn the death of their two year old son which occurred on Thursday of last week. The little fellow had been ill for about three weeks and all that medical aid could do seemed to be of no avail and he gradually sank until the end.