

George H. Woodbury died at his home in Jamestown on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock after a brief illness resulting from a cold which he contracted while attending the shriners convention at St. Paul. He is one of the old timers of the county, having resided in Jamestown since 1879. He was elected county commissioner in 1881 and was elected to the same office five times, serving in that capacity for sixteen years. The funeral is being held from the M. E. church at Jamestown this afternoon, the G. A. R. of that city being in charge of the services.
