

A sad accident occurred at McHenry on Saturday evening and resulted in the death of Mrs. G. Woodwick and her baby. In some way the generator of the gasoline lighting plant exploded and they were so badly burned that they died from the effects. The funeral was held on Tuesday.