

LOHRKE-GALLIVAN

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED LAST EVENING AT SIX O'CLOCK AT THE HOME OF THE BRIDE'S PARENTS.

A very pretty wedding occurred last evening at six o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gallivan, when their daughter Edna Lenore, became the happy bride of Mr. Otto Albert Lohrke. The nuptial ceremony was performed by Rev. M. S. Riddle in the presence of about twenty of the most intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the parlor and dining room being strewn with pink and white sweet peas, smilax, ferns and with an intermingling of pink carnations, presented a very beautiful and elegant appearance. At exactly six o'clock the bridal party descended the stairs to the parlor to strains of Lohrengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. B. H. Stoddard. The beautiful ring ceremony was used, little Avery Tucker acting as ring bearer, and after receiving the congratulations of the assembled company, all were seated to enjoy a sumptuous wedding supper served by Mrs. Gallivan.

The bride presented a very handsome appearance, her gown being of white chiffon made over white silk, beautifully embellished with lace. She carried a shower bouquet of Lillies of the Valley.

At seven o'clock the guests gathered for the wedding reception and after congratulating the happy couple partook of light refreshments and then escorted the bridal party to the depot where they boarded No. 106 enroute for the East on a wedding tour.

The bride is one of the most popular and talented young ladies of the town, having come here with her parents a number of years ago from Cleveland, Ohio. She graduated from the Valley City High school in 1906. Mr. Lohrke is one of the brightest young men of the town and has been connected with the H. N. Tucker company here for a number of years, having acted in the capacity of bookkeeper.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were: Miss Lohrke, a sister of the groom, from Springfield, Minn., Mrs. Stinaff of Cant, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. O. Langworthy of Minneapolis; Mrs. Heberling of Cleveland, Ohio; and Miss Agnes and Helen Breen.

Many costly and beautiful wedding gifts were received by the young couple and the Gazette joins their hosts of friends in wishing them a happy and a prosperous wedded life.
