

Sunday, February 1st, was the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Neva, and on Monday a large number of relatives and immediate friends planned a surprise on the long married couple. Amusements of all kinds were in progress during the evening, which together with the useful presents given the aged people, made the commemoration of this notable event in their lives a very pleasant one indeed.