

There was considerable excitement on the street Friday evening. John Albrecht's team was hitched to the rail in front of the Courtenay Mercantile store and a horse and buggy belonging to Louie Wang was tied on the side of them when some dogs ran under the Albrecht horses, frightening one of them so that he kicked over the tongue, broke his tieings and tried to run over the horse and buggy belonging to Mr. Wang. Mr. Albrecht happened to be standing near his horses and soon had them under control but not until the buggy of Mr. Wang had been overturned and slightly damaged.
