

Clarence Berg was taken sick at Turtle Lake last week and on Friday returned home where he would be better able to receive every care and attention necessary for his attack of pneumonia. His many friends will be glad to learn that he is improving rapidly and will soon recover his strength.