

Pleyal, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Derickson, met with quite a painful accident last week when a large hay fork fell running one of the tines entirely thru his foot. The little fellow was taken to Jamestown where he is still under the doctors care but is getting along nicely.

D. C. Wilson had his foot