

Peter Falk met with a rather painful accident on Thursday evening of last week. He met an automobile in the road and his horse became frightened and turned around quickly and upset the buggy, throwing Mr. Falk out in the road. In the mixup his shoulder was dislocated and one of his limbs injured but he is around again and getting along nicely.