

GEM ITEMS

Several from here will go to Pingree on market day, Saturday, July 24th.

D. G. Wilson moved his barn last week from his homestead to his farm where he now lives.

The county road gang is camped in our neighborhood ready to begin work on the public roads.

George Maulding is treating himself to a new well having recently purchased a well auger.

A. A. Norris drew the prize, a large ham, for driving the farthest to market day on the 21st of June.

John Thompson and family from Cavalier county are visiting his brother and other relatives here.

Mrs. Cochran and sisters, Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Leeman, are enjoying a visit from their mother of Michigan.

The assistant state veterinarian from Carrington came out to examine three diseased horses belonging to Calfee Williams. He pronounced it glanders and the horses were appraised and killed according to law. They were appraised at $525. There are no other of Mr. Williams' horses noticeably affected but he is under quarantine and will, as he has done since the disease was suspected, use every means to prevent further spreading of it.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. Bird near Gerber when their daughter, Miss Cora, was united in marriage to Lawrence Amick of Marstonmoor. The ceremony took place at four o'clock and was performed by Rev. C. W. Smith of Sykeston. After congratulations the guests were invited to partake of a bounteous supper. The bride has been a teacher in our schools the past two years. The happy couple will live on the groom's homestead near Marstonmoor.