

It is said that John Gibson has invented a seeding machine that will sow both ways of the field at the same time. This is a very valuable invention and Mr. Gibson has been working on the idea for some time.