

Earl Hellmund returned to Courtenay the latter part of last week from Fargo where he has been during the summer in the employ of one of the largest meat markets in that city. Earl was married to a charming young lady last January and his wife is with him on his visit to his mother at his time.