

Mrs. Peter Kupka, who is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever, was taken to the hospital at Jamestown on Tuesday where she will receive the care and comfort that is necessary for her recovery. This is an extremely sad case as her husband and children have all been down with the disease and as they were on the way to recovery she herself was taken sick and removed to Jamestown for medical attention. -