

The Northwestern Telephone Exchange Company has made arrangements to give out the returns on election night. A telephone will be installed at the Fire hall where the returns will be received which will bring joy to some and have the opposite effect on others and will also start the 'I-told-you-so.'s' agoing.