

Sheriff and Mrs. N. S. Romer came over from Jamestown on Monday during the heavy wind and dust storm, and we would like to have a picture of them about the time they arrived in Courtenay. They looked as though they had just come up from the sunny south where a good many of the citizens are of that dusky hue. They returned to Jamestown on Tuesday.