

Anton Saxerud returned last evening from Hettinger and Reeder in Adams county where he had been for about a week looking over that section of the country. He reports everything booming over there and the country rapidly filling up and the towns making rapid progress. He filed in the land drawing at Aberdeen, S. D., while on the trip.