

NEW CASHIER AT FIRST NATIONAL

PAUL EDW. SKJERSETH RETURNS TO COURTENAY AND TAKES CHARGE OF THE INSTITUTION.

The First National Bank starts out the month of October, with a comparatively new working force, having in charge as Cashier, Mr. Paul Edw. Skjerseth, who comes from York, where he has been cashier of the Bank of York, one of the institutions owned by Messrs. Ross and Davidson. Mr. Skjerseth was a resident of Courtenay and an employee of The First National Bank, several years ago, and was afterward moved to Balfour, where he was appointed assistant Cashier of the First State Bank, another one of the Ross-Davidson banks. When the Bank of York was purchased last fall by these people, Mr. Skjerseth was promoted from his position at Balfour, to take charge of the Bank of York, and his appointment as cashier of The First National Bank is a further note of appreciation of his services, on the part of his employers. Mr. Skjerseth is regarded as one of the most faithful and loyal employees, one who serves the interest of his employers and the customers of the bank alike, as well, and we feel safe in stating that any matter of business entrusted to him will receive the most courteous and prompt attention.
