

WORK.

E. J. Hancock, J. W. Helms, Herb Thompson and A. W. Porter returned from Canada on Sunday morning where they had been for a few days looking over that country. They each took up a homestead and pre-emption and in six months from now will have to move onto them in order to hold their right. They like the looks of the country.