

Wimbledon Items

News, Aug. 7—C. A. McBride's mother left Tuesday for her home at Rose Creek, Minn., after an enjoyable visit here for several days. Miss Mae McBride accompanied her and will visit friends at that place for a short time.

The little 10-year old son of P. J. Altringer, was quite badly burned about the face Tuesday. The little fellow had taken powder from some shells and touched a match to it with the above result. Dr. Wanner treated the injured parts and the little fellow is getting along nicely.

D. B. Berlin returned Sunday morning from Rochester, Minn. Miss Geraldine's health will not permit her to be brought here. Her many friends are pleased to learn that she is improving under the present method of treatment, and may be able to visit here later in the fall.

Arthur Swartwout and family returned the latter part of last week from their farm near Douglas where they made considerable improvements the past few months. All are pleased to have the family here again and to know that Arthur will manage the Minnekota elevator here this season.

There was a merry time at E. C. Evenson's farm home northeast of Wimbledon Friday evening of last week. The occasion was the opening of a bran new barn with a dance. There was a large attendance and all report it the best of the season. Ice cream, cake and lemonade were served about midnight and the merry dance continued until the wee sma' hours of the following morn'. Henry Nelson and John Ryan furnished the music, which is said to have been par excellent.