

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ersin, on Monday morning, September 23rd, a twelve pound baby boy. Mother and son are getting along nicely and E. J. is taking two high steps at a time and if he isn't saying much he feels like saying, "Not a lifeless, useless toy, we've a lively, bouncing boy." Verily, "What is home without a baby?" The Gazette congratulates the proud parents and trusts the young gentleman may grow into noble manhood and fill the sunset of his parent's life with comfort and happiness.
