

Fred Bohl Dead

The following from a Wisconsin paper will be of interest to those in this vicinity who were acquainted with the deceased.

Fred Bohl was born in Boscobel Sept. 18., 1879, and was killed at Cross Plains, Jan. 7; 1907, aged 30 years, 3 months and 20 days.

At the age of fifteen he entered the employ of Geo. W. Goldsmith, then editor of the Dial. He followed the printing trade under Editor Goldsmith a majority of the time until his death. He has worked in nearly every printing office in this vicinity and many city offices.

On March 6, 1901, in the parlor of the Grant house, he was united in marriage by Rev. Manuel Neuess to Mae Pickett. To them were born two children, Herold, 4 years old, and an infant son, 8 months old.

Funeral was held Thursday from the house, Rev. Bond conducting the services and Boscobel's beautiful city of the dead received that which was mortal of Fred Bohl.

By nature Fred was kind and generous and many sincere friends will join with his stricken parents, sisters and wife in sorrow at his passing.
