

together in a social way.

Harry Hyland of Kensal died on Monday of this week after a lingering illness of several years. Mr. Hyland was born in Nova Scotia on July 6th, 1867. He has resided in Kensal for the past eight years and has been engaged in the hotel and restaurant business until this summer when he moved out to his farm four miles from town where he died. He leaves a wife and his father and mother who still reside in Nova Scotia, and two brothers and a sister who reside in Boston to mourn his death.

---