

Mrs. D. B. McLain of Chicago, died on Thursday of last week after a ten days attack of pneumonia. Many of the people of this community will remember Mr. and Mrs. McLain when he was located at Jamestown for the practice of dentistry.