

A Foxy Scheme

The leaders of the state insurgent machine are playing an old game to catch votes for Spalding, White, et al. This scheme, is in each county where some good man can be found to consect to the plan, to run him as a candidate for a state office. In the counties where there is a large Scandinavian population, some popular Scandinavian is induced to get into the field to head a delegation to be used by the insurgents if possible. These candidates are not advertised around the state as it would create distrust if generally known that several candidates for the same office were being privately groomed by the same insurgent machinery.—Alert.

Found Dead

Word was received here on Friday of finding in the barn the dead body of Fred Stock, a farmer who resides a few miles northwest of town. He went to the barn, according to reports early that morning, to do the chores and the cause of his sudden death is not known. Dr. DePuy was called to make an examination of the remains. Deceased was 60 years of age and married. The funeral was held on Monday forenoon. It is supposed that heart disease was the cause of death.—Alert.

Get Patriotic.

Someone has suggested that it would make the town wear an enterprising air if the citizens were to invest in a few flags to unfurl to the breeze during the races and especially the Fourth of July. This is something that ought to be done and the more the people become interested in this the more enterprising will the town appear to be.
