

A. C. Parker and Miss Minnie Korf rather surprised their friends in Courtenay this week by slipping away on Monday evening and being married in Valley City on Tuesday. They went as far west as Harvey after their marriage and returned to Courtenay last evening and were heartily serenaded. But it only required a little of this to cause "Parky" to set up the cigars for the boys and they were satisfied.

---