

MARRIED AT JAMESTOWN

W. F. STEINWAY AND MISS NELLIE HOPWOOD WERE MARRIED IN THE METHODIST CHURCH AT JAMESTOWN YESTERDAY.

W. F. Steinway and Miss Nellie Hopwood sprung a surprise on their many friends in Courtenay yesterday when they went to Jamestown, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lundeen, and were married. The ceremony was performed at twelve o'clock in the Methodist church of that city, Rev Green, pastor of the church performing the ceremony. The wedding party made the trip in an automobile with G. B. Marsalek as chauffeur.

Mr. Steinway is a popular young gentleman who has been in Courtenay for some time and holds a position in the store of Fosholdt Brothers and the bride has resided in Courtenay for a number of years and is very popular. They will make their home in Courtenay and for the present will reside with Mrs. Hopwood.
